

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

The airwaves are PUBLICLY OWNED and therefore we have a vested interest in whom is allowed to broadcast over them. It is inherently against the ideas of free expression that one would promulgate the consolidation of broadcast ownership and therefore free expression.